

ECERS

Early Childhood Environment Rating Scale

Presented by:
Emma Moench
Program Specialist

What is the ECERS-3?

- Comprehensively measures quality in the Preschool setting
- Developed by the Environment Rating Scales Institute (ERSI)
- Relies on 3-hour observation to base assessment
- Designed for use with one classroom/group for children ages 3-5

Levels of Quality

Inadequate

1

2

Minimal

3

4

Good

5

6

Excellent

7

What Does ECERS-3 Measure?

- How teachers use a variety of materials to support and enhance interactions with children
- Safe and healthy learning environments and how personal care routines are successfully managed
- ECERS-3 Subscales
 1. Space and Furnishings
 2. Personal Care Routines
 3. Language and Literacy
 4. Learning Activities
 5. Interaction
 6. Program Structure

Questions?

